MUSEUMS AND OTHER PLACES TO VISIT

AMERICAN MUSEUM AND GARDENS, Claverton Manor. Tel: 460503. The No.18 bus from the Bus Station stops 10 minutes walk from the museum. Grounds open mid-March to early-November, 1pm-6pm Tuesday to Thursday and Mondays in August, 12noon-6pm Friday to Sunday. The house is open 2pm-5pm Tuesday to Sunday and Mondays in August. Also open 11am-5pm (grounds 11am-6pm) on the Sunday and Monday of Bank Holiday weekends. Eighteen rooms each displaying an American home interior from the 17th to 19th centuries. With displays of silver, pewter, textiles and quilts, American Indian and Shaker art, historical maps and a herb garden. Special events. Teas and light refreshments are available.

BATH ABBEY (D5). Tel: 422462. Open Monday to Saturday 9am-6pm (October to Easter 9am-4.30pm), Sunday 1.15pm-2.45pm (and 4.45pm-5.30pm in summer). Sunday services at 8am, 9.15am, 11am, 12.15pm, 3.30pm, 6.30pm. There has been an Abbey on this site since the 8th century, although the present building dates from the late 16th century. The West Front, with its carved angels ascending ladders to heaven, was inspired by the dream of Bishop Oliver King. Inside there are many interesting memorials and inspiring stained glass windows. The fan-vaulting is magnificent. Bookshop.

BATH ABBEY HERITAGE VAULTS (D5). Tel: 422462. Open Monday to Saturday 10am-4pm. Closed Sundays. Wheelchair access. Displays celebrating the history of Christian worship at the Abbey site from Roman times to the present, and the people whose vision and faith have ensured the Abbey's survival through the centuries. The museum contains important finds from recent archaeological excavations, including Saxon and Norman stonework, and the 800 year old skeleton of a woman. A model contrasts the Abbey site today with how it looked in the 13th century.

BATH AQUA THEATRE OF GLASS, 105-107 Walcot Street (D2). Tel: 428146. Open daily 10am-5pm. Watch the ancient craft of free blown and stained glass making, and learn about the history of glass. Children's activities. Gift shop.

BATH BOATING STATION, Forester Road (F1). Tel: 466407. Open daily April to September 10am-5.30pm. A Victorian boating station. A living museum with punts, skiffs and canoes for hire, and abundant wildlife. Tea Garden and restaurant.

BATH POSTAL MUSEUM, 8 Broad Street (C3). Tel: 460333. Open Monday to Saturday 11am-5pm, closed Sunday. The letter bearing the first postage-stamp was sent from this address on 2nd May 1840. The Museum has displays and a continuous video showing the development of the postal system from earliest times to the present day, and changing exhibitions. There is also a full-scale reconstruction of a Victorian post office. Tea Room.

BECKFORD'S TOWER AND MUSEUM, Lansdown (No.2 bus from Bath Bus Station). Tel: 422212. Open from Easter to end-October on Saturdays, Sundays and Bank Holiday Mondays, 10.30am-5pm. A 120ft Italianate tower, built in 1827 for wealthy eccentric William Beckford. The Belvedere offers panoramic views over Bath and beyond. The museum collection interprets Beckford's life and interests.

THE BUILDING OF BATH MUSEUM, The Paragon (C2). Tel: 333895. Open mid-February to November 10.30am-5pm Tuesday to Sunday and Bank Holiday Mondays. This museum reveals the fascinating story behind the facades of eighteenth century Bath, showing how it was built, how people lived, and describing the process of decorating and furnishing the Georgian interior. Exhibits include a spectacular model of the entire city. Museum Shop.

THE GUILDHALL (D4). Open Mondays 9am-5pm and various other times. Tel: 477782. The Guildhall is magnificent, with its royal portraits and crystal chandeliers. The Georgian interior of the Banqueting Room is possibly the finest in Bath. FREE.

HOLBURN MUSEUM & CRAFTS STUDY CENTRE, Great Pulteney Street (F3). Tel: 466669. Open from mid-February to mid-December, Tuesday to Saturday 10am-5pm, Sunday 2.30pm-5.30pm. Closed Mondays. The decorative and fine art here includes English and continental silver and porcelain, furniture and paintings by Gainsborough, Turner and Stubbs, among others. The museum also displays the work of leading British 20th century arts and crafts people, and has a lively programme of exhibitions and events. Disabled access. Light refreshments in the Museum Tea-house.

THE JANE AUSTEN CENTRE, 40 Gay Street. Tel: 443000. Open daily all year 10am-5.30pm Monday to Saturday, and 10.30am-5.30pm Sunday. Jane Austen lived in Bath between 1801 and 1806 and set two of her novels, Northanger Abbey and Persuasion, in the city. This new centre explores Bath in Jane Austen's time and the importance of Bath in her writing and her life. Gift shop.

MUSEUM OF BATH AT WORK: Julian Road (C1). Tel: 318348. Open daily from Easter to October 10.30am-4.30pm, and November to Easter 10.30am-4.30pm on Saturdays and Sundays only. The fascinating story of the industrial heritage of Bath. The highlight is the Bowler collection - a complete engineering works and fizzy drinks factory. Also temporary exhibitions. Refreshments and Gift Shop.

MUSEUM OF COSTUME & THE ASSEMBLY ROOMS, Bennett Street (C2). Tel: 477785. Open all year 10am-5pm (last admission 4.30pm). This fine collection of original costumes and accessories brings to life the story of fashion over the last 400 years. A free state-of-the-art personal audio tour is available in 6 languages, or there are occasional guided tours. Gift shop.

For the serious study of fashion, visit the Fashion Research Centre at 4 Circus (B3). Open Monday to Friday 10am-12.30pm and 2pm-4.30pm. It is essential to pre-book your visit to the Fashion Research Centre.

BATH'S ARCHITECTURAL HERITAGE

The Circus (B2) is a circle of 3 storey houses built around a central green. It was begun by John Wood the Elder in 1754, and completed by his son.

Great Pulteney Street (E3) designed by Thomas Baldwin, was a very fashionable place to live in the 18th and 19th centuries. It is 100 feet wide and 1100 feet long.

Pulteney Bridge (D4) was designed by Robert Adam and finished in 1774 to link the old city to Thomas Baldwin's Great Pulteney Street.

The Royal Crescent (A2) is a crescent of 30 houses built between 1767 and 1775 by John Wood the Younger.

MUSEUM OF EAST ASIAN ART, 12 Bennett Street (B2). Tel: 464640. Open Tuesday to Saturday 10am-5pm, Sunday 12noon-5pm. Over 500 treasures from the Museum's fine collection of Chinese and Asian Art, spanning 6,000 years of history, are displayed at any one time on three floors of this beautifully restored Georgian house. Exhibits include Chinese jade and bamboo carvings, Tibetan metalwork, and ceramics. Continually changing exhibitions, lectures and events. Museum shop.

No.1 ROYAL CRESCENT (A2). Tel: 428126. Open from mid-February to November, Tuesday to Sunday, Bank Holiday and Bath Festival Mondays 10.30am-5pm (10.30am-4pm in November). Closed Good Friday. Step inside this grand building to view the luxurious interior of a late 18th century townhouse, beautifully furnished in the style of the day. Kitchen Museum and Gift Shop.

PARKS AND GARDENS

GEORGIAN GARDEN (B3). Open Monday to Friday 9am-4.30pm May to October. Recreated following the original plan of c.1760 to show a typical garden layout of the period. Tel: 477752. FREE.

PRIOR PARK LANDSCAPE GARDEN. An 18th century garden set in a sweeping valley overlooking Bath. The garden was created by Ralph Allen, Alexander Pope, and "Capability" Brown. It is a National Trust property. There is no parking nearby, so access is by Badgerline bus No.2 or 4, by taxi, or on foot. Follow Prior Park Road (F7) for about half a mile. Open daily except Tuesday (open Friday to Sunday only in December and January), 11am-5.30pm (or dusk if earlier). Admission charge. Tel: 01225 833422.

Henrietta Park (E3) has many fine trees and a scented garden designed for the blind.

Parade Gardens (E5), with its bedding plant sculptures and view of the River Avon and Pulteney Bridge, is close to the Abbey.

Royal Victoria Park (A2) has attractively landscaped parkland full of unusual trees, colourful bedding schemes, an adventure playground, and good views of the Royal Crescent.

The Botanical Gardens at the western end of Royal Victoria Park is a peaceful place to stroll and enjoy the year round colour and variety of 5000 plant species.

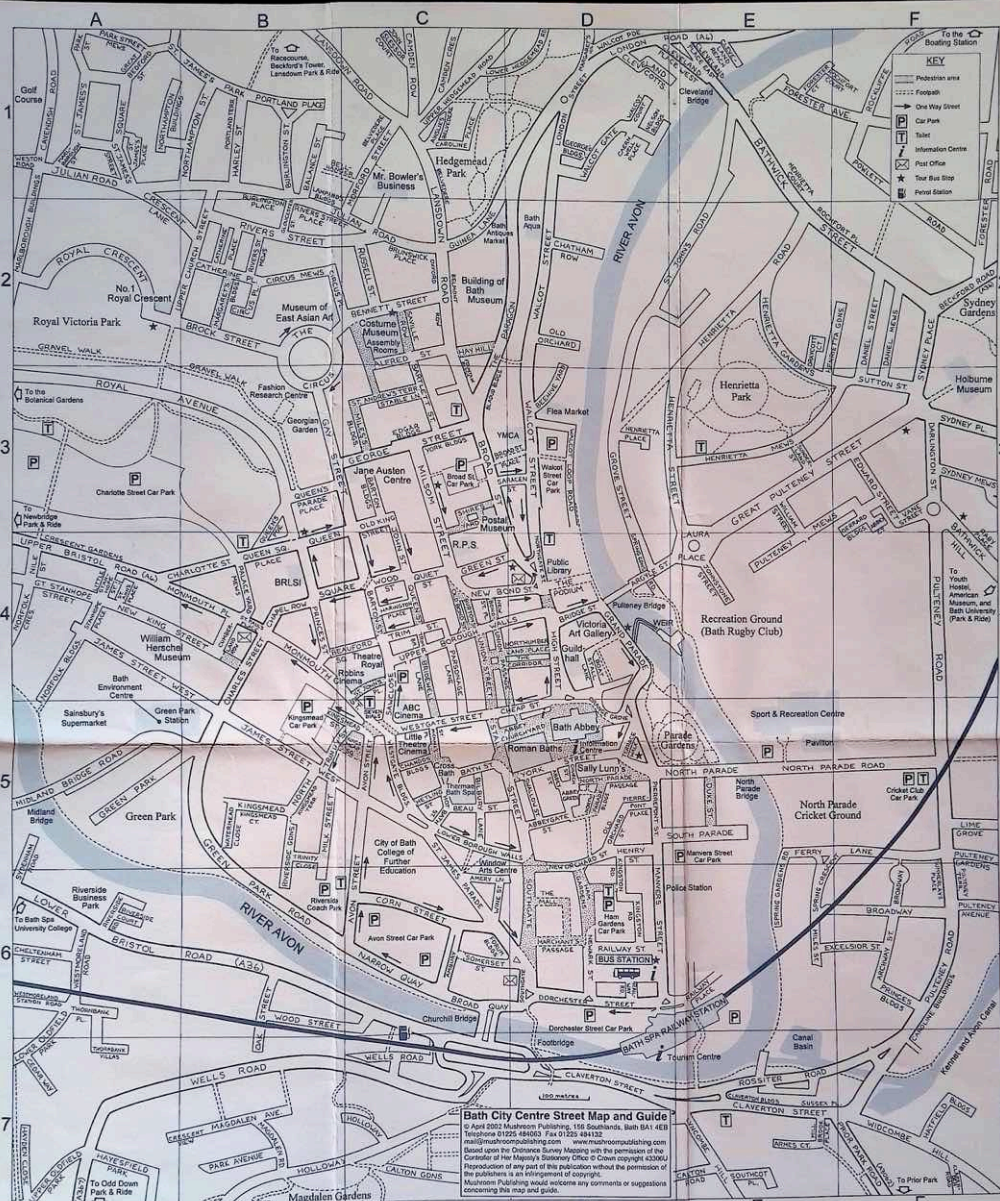

Sydney Gardens (F2) is the oldest park in Bath (1795) and contains a replica of the Roman Temple of Minerva.

ROMAN BATHS MUSEUM, Abbey Church Yard (D5). Tel: 477785. Open from March to October 9am-6pm daily (July and August until 10pm). November to February 9.30am-5.30pm daily. Last entry 1 hour before closing. Explore the remains of "Aquae Sulis" - the Roman settlement which later became Bath. Objects found during excavations, including coins, mosaics and stone carvings (such as the Gorgon's Head on the cover of this map) are on display. Highlights include the Circular Bath, glittering with coins thrown into it by visitors, and the gilt-bronze head of the statue of Sulis Minerva. A computer-animated reconstruction and wooden model show the site as it probably looked in Roman times. Free guided tours are available every hour, or use the free personal audioguide. Refreshments are available in the elegant setting of the Pump Room. The Roman Baths Museum Shop sells a range of souvenirs and gifts.

SALLY LUNN'S MUSEUM AND REFRESHMENT HOUSE, North Parade Passage (D5). Tel: 461634. Museum open 10am-6pm (Sundays 11am-6pm). The cellars of the oldest house in Bath (1482) reveal its Roman and Medieval foundations, a 900 year old bakery, stalagmites and stalactites, and objects from recent excavations. Home of the delicious Sally Lunn Bun, made according to a unique and secret recipe. Try one for yourself in the atmospheric restaurant.

VICTORIA ART GALLERY, Bridge Street (D4). Tel: 477233. Open Tuesday to Friday 10am-5.30pm, Saturday 10am-5pm, Sunday 2pm-5pm. Bath's City Art Gallery. A permanent collection of British and European art. Work by contemporary and local artists, and major touring exhibitions are shown in two purpose-built galleries. Small shop. Disabled access to lower floor only. FREE.

THE WILLIAM HERSCHEL MUSEUM, 19 New King Street (A4). Tel: 311342. Open from February to November every day except Wednesday, 2pm-5pm. While living here the scientist and musician William Herschel discovered the planet Uranus in 1781. The museum is furnished according to the period, and shows the contributions of William and his sister Caroline to science and music. New for 2002: views of the cosmos through a plasma screen in the Star Vault. No wheelchair access due to awkward stairs. Bookshop.
