

MUSEUM OF Costume BATH

The Museum of Costume, the finest museum of fashionable clothes in the world, is only a 10 minute walk away, near the Royal Crescent.

SAVE MONEY – buy a combined ticket here

FREE TRIP!

If you'd rather not walk you can travel free from the Roman Baths to the Museum of Costume, on the lower deck of local open-top tour buses, if you show your Roman Baths ticket.

Step on a bus at Terrace Walk, or opposite the Guildhall in High Street, and ask for the Museum of Costume in Bennett Street. You will be dropped off at the entrance.

THE ROMAN BATHS BATH

Admission charges are posted at reception with concessions for families, children, seniors, students and groups. There is free admission for children under 6, disabled visitors and Bath & North East Somerset residents with a discovery card or proof of residence.

Opening times
Open daily except 25 & 26 December. Open to 22.00 in July & August, last entry 21.00

First aid There is always a first aider on duty

Lost property Please ask any member of staff for help

Photography/filming
You can take hand-held photos and video, but permission is needed for commercial photography and filming

Credit cards All major credit cards are accepted

Comments Please write to: The Curator, Roman Baths & Pump Room, Stall Street, Bath BA1 1LZ

Enquiries Telephone (01225) 477785.
24 hour information line telephone (01225) 477867

Baby changing facilities
Available in both male and female toilets

The Roman Baths
Stall Street, BATH BA1 1LZ

Printed on 100% recycled paper

www.romanbaths.co.uk

THE ROMAN BATHS BATH

WELCOME

Now you can walk
where Romans walked

BATH & NORTH EAST SOMERSET

THE PUMP ROOM BATH

The social heart of 18th century Bath,
and still the perfect place to meet,
talk and take refreshments

Refreshments
Morning coffee, lunch and afternoon tea. To reserve a table, telephone (01225) 444477

Come and see:

- Statue of Beau Nash
- Longcase clock of 1709
- Sedan chairs

The Pump Room Trio

Plays every morning except for Sundays throughout the year. Also hear them every afternoon throughout the summer.

Spa water Why not try a glass of Bath's famous healing spa water?

©Bath and North East Somerset Heritage Services 2003.
All details correct at May 2003.
Photography: Fotek/B&NES
Design: www.artworks-design.co.uk

THE GREAT BATH

Still constantly filling with hot spring water

TEMPLE PRECINCT

See the head of the Goddess Sulis Minerva

THE SPRING OVERFLOW

Feel the heat of the spa water

THE EAST BATHS

Re-displayed in 2001 and newly interpreted

THE ROMAN BATHS BATH

YOUR VISIT WILL INCLUDE

THE TEMPLE

See the famous Gorgon's Head pediment

THE SACRED SPRING

The spiritual heart of the Roman religious spa

COMPUTER ANIMATIONS

Fly through the site with our latest re-constructions

THE FLAVIAN LADY

Meet the people of Roman Bath

PLAN: STREET LEVEL

Personal Acoustiguide for your own use is included in the admission charge. Available in English and these languages:

Aids for hard of hearing and visually impaired people are available at Reception

Access is free for wheel-chair users, but limited to the terrace overlooking the Roman Baths. There is level access to the Pump Room – sample the hot water free!

Roman pavements are uneven. Please take great care!

Spa water can be tasted in the Pump Room, but please do not touch it in the Baths!

Child carriers are available free of charge. Please ask for help

Length of visit is usually at least 1.5 hours

Guided tours of the Roman Baths are free and start from the side of the baths every hour

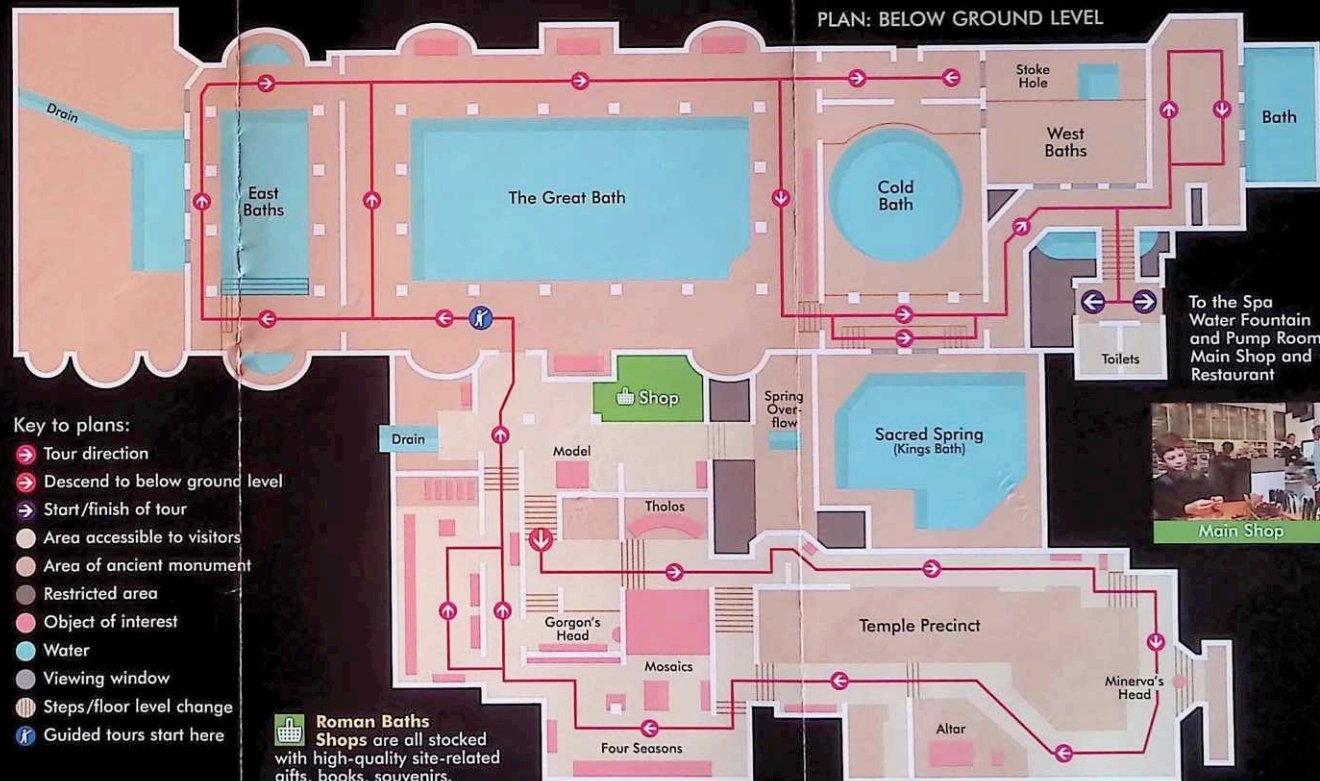

From the first century AD to the twentieth, people have been drawn to this place to seek comfort, cure and cleansing in the hot waters.

ENJOY YOUR VISIT!

BATH & NORTH EAST SOMERSET

PLAN: BELOW GROUND LEVEL

Key to plans:

- ➔ Tour direction
- ➔ Descend to below ground level
- ➔ Start/finish of tour
- Area accessible to visitors
- Area of ancient monument
- Restricted area
- Object of interest
- Water
- Viewing window
- Steps/floor level change
- Guided tours start here

Roman Baths Shops are all stocked with high-quality site-related gifts, books, souvenirs.

To the Spa Water Fountain and Pump Room, Main Shop and Restaurant

