

Saver ticket

Why not purchase a special combined ticket to the Roman Baths and Museum of Costume and make a big saving.

While you are in Bath, visit...

MUSEUM OF Costume BATH

The Museum of Costume is one of the finest museums of fashionable garments in the world. There are over 150 dressed figures on display, covering 400 years of fashion, from 1600 to the present day. A joint ticket with the Roman Baths is best value and is valid for seven days. Open daily, 10am-4.30pm, last exit 5pm. Telephone 01225 477789.

The Museum of Costume is just 10 minutes walk from the Roman Baths, or catch an open-top bus, free of charge, with your museum ticket. Buses leave frequently from beside the Abbey.

VICTORIA Art Gallery BATH

The Gallery's extensive art collection and changing exhibition programme are highly acclaimed throughout the region.

Open Tuesday-Sunday.
Closed Mondays and Bank
Holidays. Free admission.
Telephone 01225 477233.

Discovery Card

Free admission to Bath & North East Somerset residents with a Discovery Card or upon proof of residency.

www.romanbaths.co.uk

Visit us on the web. The brand new Roman Baths website gives a wealth of detail to help you plan your trip. You can even buy the guidebook in advance.

Families

The Roman Baths is family friendly. A family ticket admits two adults and up to four children. Free entry to children under six. Exchange your child's pushchair for a courtesy child carrier. Baby changing rooms are available.

Groups

Groups of 20 or more people must book in advance. Discount tickets are available. Telephone 01225 477785.

Audioguides have a T function for hearing aid users. If you use British Sign language, we may be able to arrange a signed tour for you; e-mail your request to romanbaths_enquiries@bathnes.gov.uk

Ask at the entrance for a large print version of the audioguide text. Telephone 01225 477779 for details of special access evenings for visually impaired people.

The many steps and uneven Roman pavements restrict access. There is, however, free access for wheelchair users to the terrace overlooking the Great Bath. Alternatively, come to an open access evening when the entire complex is ramped. Telephone 01225 477785.

People with learning difficulties are most welcome. For help and advice telephone 01225 477785.

E-mail

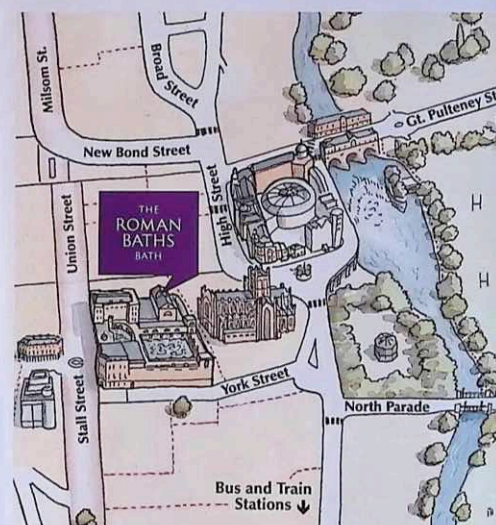

romanbaths_bookings@bathnes.gov.uk

BATH & NORTH EAST SOMERSET

Designated as a museum with an outstanding collection

Opening hours...

To get the most from your visit, you need to allow at least two hours to see the Roman Baths. Last exit 1 hour after closing

January-February and November-December: 9.30am-4.30pm

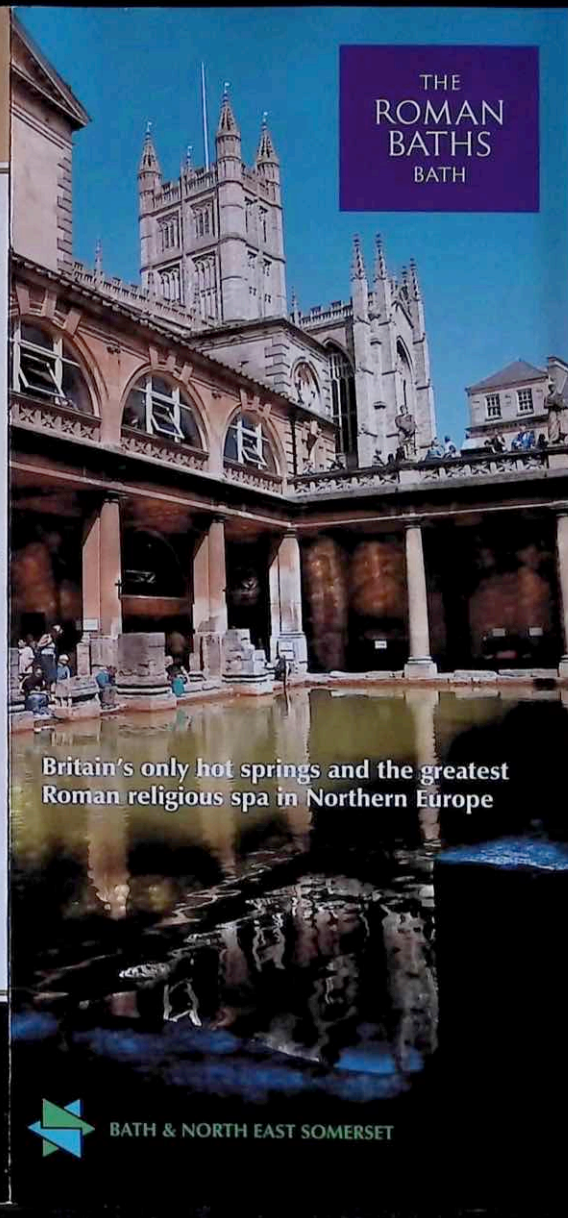

March-June and September-October: 9am-5pm

July and August: Extended opening: 9am-9pm

THE ROMAN BATHS BATH

Roman Baths & Pump Room
Abbey Church Yard, Bath BA1 1LZ

Published December 2002.
Details are correct at the time of print.
Printed on 100% recycled paper.
Ref: RBL 03/1

THE ROMAN BATHS BATH

Britain's only hot springs and the greatest Roman religious spa in Northern Europe

BATH & NORTH EAST SOMERSET

THE ROMAN
BATHS
BATH

Computer Visuals

Make the imaginative leap across 2000 years with our fully animated computer graphics of...

...the temple...

...the baths...

...a massage in the heated rooms...

...and more!

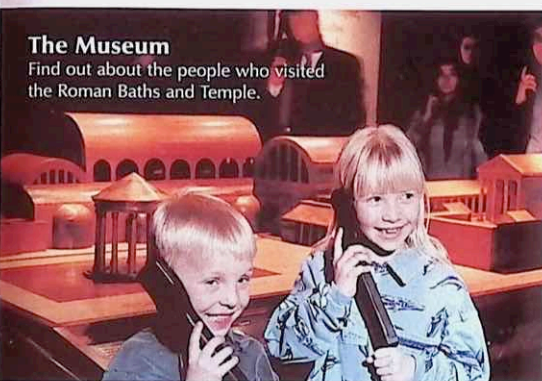

Shop

Remember your visit with a full-colour guidebook or a unique gift from the Roman Baths shop.

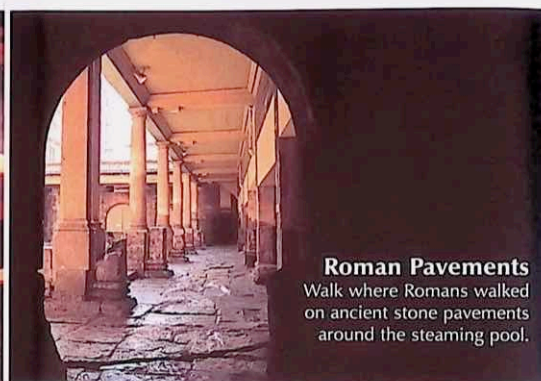

"The best 90 minutes I've spent in Europe"

The Museum

Find out about the people who visited the Roman Baths and Temple.

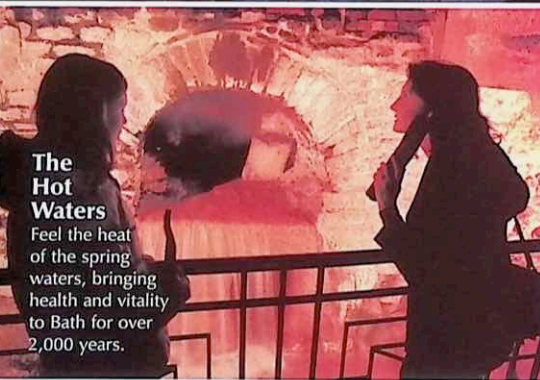

Roman Pavements

Walk where Romans walked on ancient stone pavements around the steaming pool.

The Finer Details

See carvings and inscriptions made by those who came here 2000 years ago.

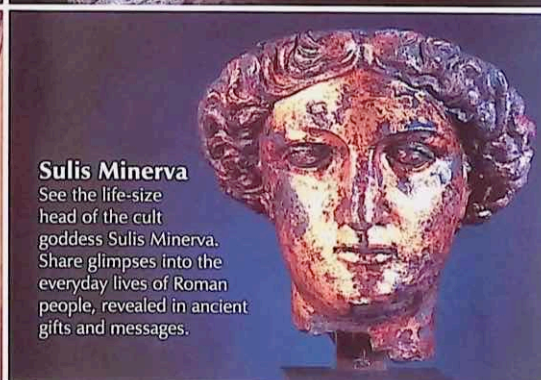

The Hot Waters

Feel the heat of the spring waters, bringing health and vitality to Bath for over 2,000 years.

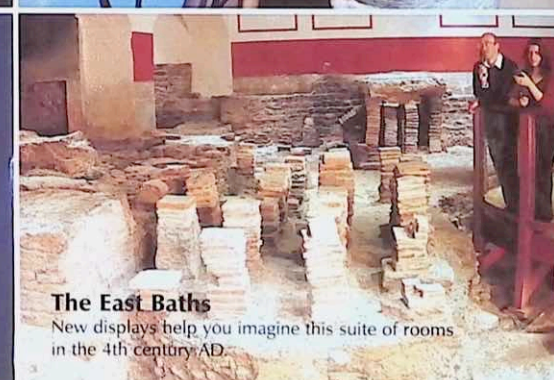

Temple Courtyard

Explore the ruins of the Temple of Sulis Minerva, hidden beneath the elegant Georgian Pump Room.

Sulis Minerva

See the life-size head of the cult goddess Sulis Minerva. Share glimpses into the everyday lives of Roman people, revealed in ancient gifts and messages.

The East Baths

New displays help you imagine this suite of rooms in the 4th century AD.

Audioguides

Set your own pace with a state-of-the-art audioguide, offered free of charge.

Schools

Experienced staff offer hands-on "Roman" experiences in the purpose-built education room. Ask for our curriculum related teachers' packs and discovery sheets.

Family activities

Activity workshops for everyone in the school holidays. Look out for Heritage Open Week during October half-term and Museums Month in May.

The Pump Room

Complete your visit with a coffee, a glass of spa water, or lunch in this fashionable Georgian meeting place. Relax to the music of the Pump Room Trio or resident pianist.